

TIDEVIEW ESTATES CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION

Rules and Regulations

Effective August 23, 2017

These Rules and Regulations supercede all previously issued Rules and Regulations.

To: Unit Owners and Renters

Living in a condominium differs from residing in an apartment or in a single, free standing home on its own lot. The distinctions have advantages and disadvantages, depending upon the individual predilections that vary widely amongst us. The lack of responsibility for snow removal, upkeep of the grounds, repairs and maintenance are clear advantages. But living in close proximity to one another requires cooperation and conformity that is not always an advantage.

The facts are we own the interior of our unit, but not the exterior. We have the exclusive uses of our patio, but do not own them, and are not free to alter them at will. And, we neither own, nor have the exclusive use of the grounds adjacent to our unit. They are common to us all.

Some residents are older and have finished rearing children or keeping pets; some are younger and enjoy a different lifestyle. Babies and children, dogs and cats, although a pleasure for some, are a nuisance to others. Therefore, every regulation will not be agreeable to everyone.

The Board of Directors of Tideview Estates has adopted the following rules as designated in Article III, Section I of the Bylaws. Residents shall at all times comply with these rules and regulations and shall see that they are faithfully observed by their families, guests, tenants and licensees. The Rules and Regulations are intended to assist in preserving a clean, attractive environment, along with protecting and enhancing the value of the property. They are not designed to unduly restrict or burden the use of the property.

Common Area:

Consists of all property other than the units and their limited Common Area.

Limited Common Area:

Certain areas are designated Limited Common Area, each such area being reserved for the exclusive use of the unit to which it is adjacent. These include the front entryways, driveways, parking areas and patios adjacent to each unit.

Common Policies:

1. The walkways and entryways (excluding patios) must not be obstructed, encumbered or used for any purpose other than entering and exiting the premises. Absolutely no carriages, bicycles, shopping carts, refuse, furniture, equipment or any other object of similar type shall be stored on walkways or entryways. The personal property of all residents must be stored within their units. Nothing shall be stored in the Common Area at any time.

2. No linens, clothing, curtains, rugs, mops, laundry or other articles shall be shaken or hung from or allowed to fall from any of the windows, doors, patios, or front entryways or exposed on the Common Areas. Please educate your guests as to the parking rules including those during snow removal. The Board of Directors reserves the right to tow any improperly parked vehicle at the vehicle owner's expense with no advance notice required. Because of the expense and inconvenience to the owner when a vehicle is towed, at least TWO Directors must agree to issue the order.

5. No nuisances shall be allowed on the property. Owners shall neither make nor permit their guests, invitees or tenants to make any improper, offensive or unlawful use of any property; In particular; no use shall be made of any unit, which would become an annoyance or nuisance to the other unit owners.  - The dish must be installed by a professional in the field.

Prior to the installation of a satellite dish, detailed plans, indicating compliance with the rules specified herein, must be submitted to the Board for their review and approval. A certificate of insurance to include Workers Compensation and General Liability coverage for the contractor must also be submitted naming Tideview Estates as the Certificate Holder.

23. No items can be nailed, screwed or glued to the vinyl privacy fences and siding. Nothing can be leaned against the fence that could possibly cause the fence to lean. Only items less than 5 pounds can be hung from the fence, if the hanger does not interfere with the other side or cause any mark or abrasion to the fence. No barbecues can be used near the fence.  - a. All fires must be contained within an appliance/device certified for that purpose and used in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations.
 - b. The only fuels approved for use are: electricity, charcoal, and petroleum/natural gas.
 - c. Due to the hazards of hot embers, firebrands, and ashes, wood burning devices are not permitted on Association grounds.
26. Owners are responsible for keeping smoke/carbon monoxide detectors and fire sprinkler systems fully capable and operational at all times.
 - a. Routine inspection, maintenance, and testing of the devices may be performed by the owners or knowledgeable individuals acting on their behalf; however, modifications/repairs must only be performed by a licensed contractor.
 - b. Testing must be accomplished whenever impaired performance of these devices is suspected or at least every six months. It is suggested that each unit owner conduct tests in the spring and fall of each year in conjunction with the resetting of clocks for time changes.
 - (1) Each smoke/carbon monoxide detector should be tested using the device's test button. The battery in battery-operated units should be replaced every six months and the battery in line-operated units (where the battery only operates in case of a power failure) should be replaced once a year.
 - (2) The fire sprinkler system water supply and alarm should be tested by opening the test/drain valve and assuring that the horn outside the unit's front door sounds. The pressure gauge (located above the test/drain valve) should not read less than 40 PSI. The test/drain valve should be closed completely after the test.

Note: While the test is being performed a substantial amount of water will be discharged from the pipe opening in the patio area of the unit (in the case of end units) or the adjacent end unit (in the case of middle units.) The discharge area should be inspected prior to the test to make sure that the water discharge doesn't do any preventable damage.
 - c. Unless an owner pays to subscribe to a monitoring service, neither the smoke/carbon monoxide detectors nor the fire sprinkler system automatically notify emergency services in the event of activation; therefore, tests will not result in false alarms. In a true emergency where these systems sound the alarm, the 911 emergency number MUST be called.

- b. The appliance and any associated part or fixture must not be attached to, contact, or cover any portion of the common or limited-common areas, i.e. the siding. In other words, the device and everything associated with it must fit inside the perimeter defined by the window frame.
- c. Scrap, haphazardly applied, inappropriate colored/textured, common materials (wood, cardboard, plastic sheeting, tape, etc.) must not be used to block the window opening surrounding the appliance in an attempt to prevent outside air infiltration. The installation must be neat, professional, aesthetically presentable, and not detract from the overall external appearance of the building, at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- d. Any air conditioning systems that require portions to be installed in/on the common or limited-common areas must be specifically approved beforehand by the board of directors. Areas of concern include -- but are not limited to -- placement and routing of electrical/gas/liquid lines, entry points through the building exterior, possibilities of noise/odors, future removal of equipment and restoration of landscape, etc."
- e. Time Period: Installed Memorial Day and Removed by October 15 of each year.
